Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurItalian mystery and suspense seen (and solved) with the eyes of a British detective. It's flash fiction showtime. Volume 3 of the Chase Williams flash fiction series delivers yet another brilliant batch of ten short mystery stories of 1,000 words each. Ten fast-paced detective stories, ten dark portraits of seemingly serene Tursenia. Central Italy is not all medieval towns, stunning art and lovely food: mysteries swirl and crimes lurk in the labyrinth of alleys in the historic city centre not so far from the tourist routes. Chase investigates offences perpetrated by normal people whom you would never imagine could hide a dark criminal mind, hence making them all the harder to nail. Chase flanks Inspector Angelo Alunni again whilst solving bloody murder mysteries and cold cases, as well as extraordinarily topical daily dramas. This is a superb collection of short stories to read either one at a time when you can snatch a few minutes, or altogether when you have more time. You haven't read the first two volumes yet? Don't worry. The Chase Williams detective flash fiction series consists of standalone short stories that you can start reading right now. Find other Chase Williams cozy mysteries on Kindle Store!
