Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur Andrew is a starstruck teenager. Robert is a music industry mogul. It all starts when Andrew, wanting to pursue a career in showbiz, writes a letter to Robert McIntosh, whom he deems the most powerful man in the country. However, as time passes, Andrew will discover that to him, Robert is not merely a surefire ticket to stardom; and, through doubt and sorrow, Robert will realize that love doesn't always find us the way we expect. A collection of short stories, rather than a traditional novella, Mike McAvoy uses his unique style to take us through an unexpectedly touching and erotic journey as Andrew and Robert find out that true love can be hiding in the dustiest corners of what society at large would label nothing short of immoral. All characters are of legal age.
